2025 is HERE

At The Post, our after-school youth ministry continues to be a place where hope, growth, and faith come together for the at-risk youth we serve. These young people face daily challenges – from the pressures of staying in school and keeping jobs, to the struggle of escaping the grip of negative peer pressures. Yet, through it all, we see resilience and a desire for change.

As we gather each week, the sound of basketballs bouncing on the court and laughter filling the room during board games create an atmosphere of camaraderie and connection. It's a place where they share stories, dreams, and even frustrations, often talking about school, cars, and their futures. These moments of genuine interaction are crucial as they build trust and form lasting friendships.

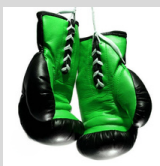

We're witnessing a beautiful shift. More and more, these young individuals are opening their hearts to hear the Word of God. They are seeking guidance, strength, and a foundation to build their lives upon. The lessons from scripture are beginning to take root, offering them hope, purpose, and a sense of belonging.

At The Post, we are committed to walking alongside them on their journey, providing not just guidance but a place of peace where they can grow spiritually, emotionally, and mentally.

We are excited to see how God is moving in their lives and are grateful for the support of everyone who makes this possible.

Please continue to pray for our youth and the work we are doing here. Together, we are planting seeds of hope that will bear fruit for years to come.
